WILL INVITE A BIG CONVENTION

State Horticultural Association will likely hold its Summer Meeting in Adams County. Great Benefit to this Section.

The regular meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County was held in the town hall, Arendts-ville, on Saturday afternoon following the usual custom of holding at least one meeting a year in that town to accommodate the large number of members living in Arendtsville and the immediate vicinity.

Under new business C. J. Tyson announced that the State Horticultural Association would hold a summer meeting during the year and that he believed it could be secured for this county if prompt and favorable action were taken. W. W. Boyer spoke favorably on the proposition. A full apple crop is expected and the county will appear at its best.

The matter was further discussed by H. M. Keller, A. I. Weidner, Robert M. Eldon, William H. Black, J.
A. Kane, John A. Knouss and others, three aspects of the plan being given attention; first as to the great advantage such a meeting would be to the county, to say nothing of its educational value; second, as to the best time for holding the meeting to show the products of the county to best advantage; and third as to the means of transportation and caring for the guests.

Visitors from all parts of this and from adjoining states attend these meetings and the value of such meeting to Adams County is difficult to estimate. The past two summer meetings were held at West Chester and Erie county.

In the discussion as to the best time of holding this meeting it was brought out that the orchards look the best when loaded down with fruit which is well colored and about ready to pick. In the early part of September the peaches are ripe, the apples fairly well colored and the whole section looks its best. Holding it at that time would also make it possible to get the attendance of a number of apple buyers. In answer to a question C. J. Tyson stated that to secure the meeting it would be necessary for the Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County to furnish a meeting place and it would be advisable to arrange a sight seeing trip through the fruit district, and that he believed a picnic lunch for the visitors would be a good thing.

After a full discussion of the question it was decided that these things could be undertaken and the corresponding secretary was instructed to extend the invitation of the Adams County Association to the State Horticultural Association to hold their meeting in this county with the suggestion that it be held the early part of September.

C. A. Griest, appointed official delegate to the Harrisburg meeting of the State Association, gave a full report, taking up each address and giving the points of most interest to Adams County growers. He thought that the meeting was the best yet held with regard to attendance, interest and enthusiasm.

A discussion of the road question was then taken up. A letter was read from Thomas Green, district superintendent of the State Highway Department, calling attention to the law that no private entrance from such a manner as to obstruct the free flow of water in the side drains.

E. C. Tyson spoke of the necessity of carrying out this principle in the care of all our dirt roads, if good results are to be secured. He called attention to the practice of some property owners of shutting drains with rails and other materials to afford means of easy entrance to fields, thereby turning the water into the road—a very short sighted policy, when it is considered that every property owner should be equally interested in the care of the roads.

Arthur Roberts brought out the necessity of thoroughly draining the road bed and providing a means for the water to flow away from the road. He called attention to cases where the side drains were actually higher than the road and divided from it by high banks.

"Shall the Association Stand for or against the Proposed $50,000,000 Bond Issue" was discussed vigorously by those who favor and those who oppose the measure and the question was very actively debated. It was finally decided on motion that the Fruit Growers' Association of Adams County go on record as favoring the bond issue. The question was not carried unanimously.

SCHOOL CLOSED BY DIPHTHERIA

Miss Myra Ruff, Teacher of Second School, Contracts Diphtheria.
Precautions at once Taken to Safeguard Children.

Miss Myra Ruff, teacher of the second school in the High Street building, has contracted diphtheria and her room will be closed for several days following fumigation. Miss Ruff is under quarantine at her home in New Oxford. The re-appearance of the disease has caused much apprehension among parents but the local health and school authorities are taking their customary vigorous and effective measures to prevent further infection and it is hoped that no other cases will occur.

Miss Ruff was not feeling well on either Thursday or Friday but continued her work until Friday afternoon when she went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ruff in New Oxford. On Saturday afternoon a physician was summoned and diphtheria was the diagnosis. The case is said to be a mild one. The New Oxford health authorities quarantined her home on Saturday evening.

On Sunday the Gettysburg school board had the room thoroughly fumigated. Miss Ruff teaches pupils from the first and second grades and they will be free from school duties until Thursday of this week when the room will again be opened. Miss Grace Sachs, teacher of the Second Grade, has been under quarantine for almost three weeks, as the result of diphtheria in her home, and Mrs. S.
M. Stewart, the substitute teacher, has been carrying on her work. On Thursday Miss Sachs can take up her duties and Mrs. Stewart will open Miss Ruff's room.

With the measles epidemic and the time lost through these diphtheria cases work in the public schools of the town has been seriously interfered with this term but it is felt that it is far better to have the work hampered than to run any risk with the health of the children.

BASKET BALL

College Team Loses and Wins. Town Team to Take Trip.

The College basket ball team returned on Sunday from a two days' trip. They were defeated by Delaware College at Newark 17-16 and won from Johns Hopkins at Baltimore 24-21.

The Gettysburg A. C. basket ball team will leave Tuesday afternoon on a six days' trip through Maryland and Virginia. The following games will be played: February 11, Frederick Y. M. C. A., at Frederick; February 12, Augusta Military Academy at Ft. Defiance; February 13, Fishburn Military Academy at Richmond, Va., (afternoon); February 13, Staunton Military Academy at Staunton, Va., (night); February 14, Massanutten Military Academy, at Woodstock, Va.; February 15, Shenandoah Valley Academy at Winchester, Va.

The High School team was defeated by the York High School five at York on Saturday 43 to 13.

WARMER WEATHER

Warmer by End of Week, it is Predicted.

Normal winter temperatures in practically all parts of the country east of the Rocky Mountains and temperatures slightly above normal on the Pacific Slope are indicated for the coming week, according to the weekly Weather Bureau bulletin.
"The precipitation during the week," says the bulletin, "will be generally below normal, except in the Pacific States, where rains will be frequent.
The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Far West about Wednesday, cross the Middle West Thursday or Friday and the Eastern States at the end of the week. This disturbance will be preceded by rising temperature and be attended by general snows in Northern and rains in Southern States. It will be followed by decidedly colder weather, which will make its appearance in the Northwest about Thursday.

WILL TAKE CARE OF OVERFLOW

Those Unable to Find Accommodations at Gettysburg in July will Find York Ready to Care for them.
Preparations.

Preparations to accommodate in York some of the overflow of the thousands of tourists who will come to Gettysburg during the 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, July 1-4, are being made by the York Chamber of Commerce. About 100 letters were mailed Saturday by Eugene F. Weiser, secretary of the York chamber, to hotels and proprietors of boarding houses, in order to find out how many visitors can be accommodated in York.

The list of hotels and boarding houses of that city has been made as complete as possible, but if any have been missed the organization is anxious that they communicate and state their facilities. Any private homes in the city which can furnish accommodations will be listed.

The letters mailed Saturday state, "The 50th anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg will be celebrated the first week of next July, at that place. In view of the fact that Gettysburg will not be able to accommodate the thousands of tourists, York should be prepared to care for part of the overflow.
We kindly ask you to fill out the enclosed blank and return same to us at once. This information will be forwarded to the national commission supervising this event." The letter is accompanied by a slip on which the person providing accommodation is asked to state the number of tourists for whom he can supply lodging and price per day and the number of tourists for whom he can supply meals, and price per meal. As soon as the data is compiled by Secretary Weiser it will be sent to the national commission and the chairman of the Gettysburg committee.

Special trains will be run daily in the morning and evening between York and Gettysburg. Many autoists will come to Gettysburg from all over the country. Local garages will be taxed to the utmost in order to accommodate the cars of tourists at this time.

Work has been started in York on the publicity campaign and letters are being prepared to be sent to public spirited citizens and organizations of that city in order to assist in raising a fund of $500 to be used to advertise the advantages of the city in trade and other journals, and boost York in general. The communications will be sent out this week.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Franklin Township Men Given Hearing by Squire Hill.

Ralph and Clarence Shultz, of Franklin township, were given a hearing before Squire Hill this morning as the outcome of a street fracas in Cashtown last Wednesday evening.
Both gave bail for appearance at Court, Ralph Shultz in the sum of $500 for cases of assault and battery on J. Herman Bream and Constable Jacob Deardorff; and his brother, Clarence Shultz, on a similar charge against Mr. Bream. It seems that Clarence Shultz was discharged by Mr. Bream some time ago and that on Wednesday evening he and his brother precipitated an argument with Bream. The officer interfered when loud talking and objectionable conduct followed and this morning's cases were the result.

ANOTHER ARREST

Miss Menchey is Arrested on Assault and Battery Charge.

Miss Maud Menchey was arrested this morning by Constable Gordon on a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. John Steinour, of Breckenridge street. She gave $100 bail for appearance at a hearing this evening.
The case is a result of an altercation last week when Chief Shearer was searching the Steinour home for jewelry and Miss Menchey was taken along to identify the goods. The women engaged in a lively encounter which the officers had to stop.

sponded: "Primarily for the advertisement. Why else should I equip the strength of the company did not count for anything?" John W. Vo-

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF COUNTY

Short Paragraphs of Live News happenings in Adams County Towns and in the Rural Districts. The Latest News.

David Walters, of route 9, Gettysburg, had an unusual experience while coming to Gettysburg one day last week. A garter snake, about two feet in length, suddenly emerged from a fence corner at the side of the road and made three attempts to bite the buggy wheel and then retired to his former station. Active snakes at this time of the year are said to be very rare.

Littletown is urging work by the Conewago Gas Company which is planning to extend its lines through the lower end of the county. The Littletown citizens believe in competition, it seems, and want the company furnishing their electric light to have some opposition.

J. W. Maring reports getting 160 pounds of lard from a 491 pound hog which he slaughtered recently. The announcement some months ago that The Times would not publish hog weights unless the animals were over 100 pounds seems to have kept down the news of that column considerably.

The Seven Stars, Belmont and Lowest Grove rural telephone lines will soon be connected with the United exchange at this place while the Plain View company will connect with the Littletown exchange. The telephone extensions by both companies operating in Adams County have been so general during the past year that almost every section is covered with one or other of the telephone lines.

The Reformed churches throughout the county have observed the 350th anniversary of the Heidelberg Catechism, during the past few weeks.
This observance is general throughout the country and the observance here was a part of the general plan.

Biglerville is making all preparations for its $7000 bond issue this spring. The money will be used for the building of a road of macadam and asphalt from the western to the eastern end of the town. The bonds will be of the $200 denomination, free of taxes and will bear interest at 4½ per cent. It is expected that the State Highway Department will build the Gettysburg road through Biglerville from the northern to the southern borough limits.

GRASS WIDOWERS' CLUB

Eight Wifeless Men Form an Organization in Town.

A Grass Widowers' Club is the newest organization in town. Eight wife-less individuals met at the social rooms in the Eagles' Home on Chambersburg street on Saturday and organized for purposes of condolence, consolation and congenial activities.
Officers were elected and a committee on constitution appointed. A campaign for new members will be instituted in the near future and applications will be received at any time.
The charter members are all really-truly men who are qualified to enjoy or endure—which ever the case may be—the title of grass widower and all new applicants will have to furnish proofs of the same state of life.

This new association, by the way, is Gettysburg's fifty eighth, counting a half dozen which have gone to the Happy Hunting Grounds in the past year or so. A badge, pass word and grip are to be adopted at the first called meeting.

The names of the members, you ask? Oh yes, they may be learned by calling at The Times office where they will be kept on file together with all others who may be initiated into the order.

COMING SHOW

Bell Ringers will be with Musical Georgettes.

The following from a Rochester paper concerns the "Musical Georgettes", who will be the attraction at the Wizard Theatre, Friday evening, February 14: "A large audience at the Women's Club Wednesday evening was highly entertained by the Swiss Bell Ringers. The company consists of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Georgette and their daughter, Josephine.
Each of the family is a soloist on different instruments and the program given was sufficiently varied to retain the interest and attention of all present. Many new and novel instruments were shown for the first time."

UPRISING OF FEDERAL TROOPS IN MEXICO CITY

Hundreds Killed and Wounded.

MADERO LEADS IN FIGHT

President's Brother is Taken Prisoner by Rebels.

CITY IS UNDER MARTIAL LAW

General Diaz, Released From Prison Leads Attack.

Mexico City, Mex., Feb. 10.—The national capital of Mexico became a battlefield. About 150 were killed and the wounded are said to total several hundred. Martial law has been proclaimed.

Madero's family has taken refuge in the Japanese legation, and the president is making a fight, desperate in its efforts, against what appears to be enormous odds for retention of a power.

General Diaz, who is the nephew of the deposed president, Porfirio Diaz, is now at the head of a majority of the capital troops, including most of the artillery, and is in possession of the arsenal in the city and the powder works nearby.

Madero is relying on the loyalty of General Blanquet, who has been summoned from Toluca, forty miles distant, but Blanquet has only 1000 men under his command, and the rebels are confident of defeating him should he refuse to join the revolt.

Three Americans, two women and one man, were killed in the fighting at the palace.

Fighting in the streets of the capital opened at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, when part of the federal troops in the capital rose in mutiny, first attacking the military prison and releasing General Felix Diaz and General Bernardo Reyes.

General Diaz immediately took command of the mutinous troops and led them in an assault upon the national palace, where President Francisco I. Madero was at that time asleep. Part of the guards at the palace remained loyal, and Madero, aroused from his bedchamber, took command in person and led them through the streets.

The president was able to hold the palace and drive the mutineers off, but in other parts of the city the mutineers were more successful. These elevated bands of loyal troops in several localities. Many spectators were also wounded and the principal buildings of the city were badly shot up.

It was declared that President Madero had disappeared from the palace and that he was either in hiding or a prisoner of the rebels. In the event of his being made a prisoner it is believed that his execution will occur in a short time.

People Shot in Their Homes.

General Villalaz, one of the loyal army officers, was killed in the fighting. Many officers of lesser rank met death in attempting to resist the mutineers and the rebels. Joined by the mob, the mutineers were soon but a small part of the rebel army in the actual conflict. Men with guns and pistols came from all quarters to join Diaz's troops in the fighting. The Diaz men were careless of their firearms and bullets flew everywhere. People were shot in their homes as they were hiding from the trouble. Bombs, hand grenades and other weapons common to the rebels were used.

The treasury was one of the points of rebel attack, and the handsome building was badly damaged. It is declared that the rebels succeeded in reaching the vaults and obtaining a quantity of money.

It was reported that General Reyes had been killed, but this was denied and he was said to be with Diaz. He was in the thick of the fighting and a half hundred men were shot down around him. He was seen to fall, which led to the report that he had been killed.

General Diaz escaped with a small following after the attack on the palace had been repulsed. It is believed that he has left Mexico City, rallying to the personal leadership of President Madero, the loyal troops after a number of deep desperate hand-to-hand conflicts in the streets near the palace, city prison and penitentiary succeeded in quelling the mutiny to a great extent.

A vast majority of the excited populace is frankly open in its expression of loyalty to President Madero and his administration.

Madero's Brother a Prisoner.

Gustavo Madero, brother of the president, who recently returned from a diplomatic mission to Japan, was made a prisoner by the mutineers. The rebels have a stronger hatred for him than for the president.

Gustavo drew $30,000 from the federal government shortly after his brother became president for financial assistance he was supposed to have furnished the Madero revolutionists. He was also granted many concessions by the government, and the rebels charge that he went to Japan to sell to that nation a Pacific coast coal station to raise money to fight the rebels.

Gustavo Madero wears a monocle, and so strong is his influence over his brother that the rebels call the Madero rule "the one-eyed government."

General Felix Diaz, who is now the supreme leader of the rebels in the capital, was under sentence of death by a military court martial for his recent attempt at rebellion at Vera Cruz.

General Reyes was in jail awaiting trial for attempting to start a revolution in Nuevo Leon about a year ago.

General Huerta is to be the commander of the south in the new revolt, it is declared, and General Pascual Orozco, Jr., is to take command in the north, while General Trevino is to be president and General Felix Diaz is to be secretary of war.

The present uprising is strictly an army uprising, but has the approval of the rebels.

Sunday's revolt had been expected for a day or so. Even Saturday afternoon some rebels were sent to rebel leaders at Vera Cruz and in border cities in the United States to be prepared for "something big."

Only two weeks ago a rebel ticket was announced at San Antonio, Tex., which was said to have the approval of all rebels, with General Trevino for president and General Diaz for minister of war. It is for this ticket the present revolution is being pushed.

Francisco de la Barra, former professional president of Mexico and prior to that Mexican ambassador to the United States, was named for one of the cabinet positions under the new regime. General Samuel Garcia Cuellar, former chief aide de camp to General Porfirio Diaz, was named as another officer for the proposed cabinet.

Reyes Reported Killed

Another report says that when General Diaz and Reyes were released from prison they were taken to the palace by the troops.

Suddenly the south door of the palace, known as the president's door, flashed open and from within came the report of a rifle.

At the same moment General Reyes, standing near Diaz, crumpled into a heap. He had been shot through the head and died instantly.

His death was the signal for a general fight. In an instant the machine guns on the roof of the cathedral began splitting their hail of lead and steel and simultaneously the artillery, which had approached from the south, began an attack on the cavalry.

The mob in the streets swung about and beat a hasty retreat for any kind of shelter. In a minute or two the Zocalo plaza was filled with the dead and dying. Everywhere a pool of blood marked the place where bullets had found a mark and where the shrapnel and the solid shot of the field guns worked carnage.

Your correspondent was in front of the national palace when the firing began. He ran across the plaza with other thousands of scurrying men, women and children, scores of whom fell in their flight to cover.

It is conservatively estimated that 200 were killed in the Zocalo plaza, and 500 wounded. Outside the plaza resembled a shambles. The battle favored the federalists, who, not keeping faith, Diaz turned the machine guns on the troops below.

It is impossible to make a forecast of the outcome, but if the mobs get the upper hand it is likely to be a repetition of the Par's commune. A large Maderista mob found vengeance in destroying the buildings and plants of the anti-Maderista papers, El Pais and La Tribuna.

NO U. S. INTERVENTION

Taft's Policy in Mexico Will Be Maintained to the End.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The explosion in Mexico City will not result in intervention in Mexico during the remaining three weeks of the Taft administration.

It was authoritatively stated that President Taft's policy of non-intervention would be maintained to the last hour of his occupancy of the White House. No comment on the revolt was obtainable.

It is practically certain that upon the receipt of the first official confirmation of the upheaval in the Mexican capital warships will be dispatched to the important ports of Mexico, on both the east and west coasts. There is now only one American warship in Mexican waters, the Denver, which is at Acapulco. The entire Atlantic fleet, however, is at Guantanamo bay, Cuba, within easy striking distance of the east coast of Mexico, while Admiral Southard has two cruisers, the Colorado and the South Dakota, ready to sail at short notice from San Diego.

Salvador President Dies of Wounds.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Manuel Araujo, president of Salvador, died in the capital of that republic as a result of wounds inflicted upon him by five assassins on the night of Feb. 4. News of his death was received at the state department in a dispatch from United States Minister Helmke.

REPULSE TURKS IN FIERCE FIGHT

Ottomans Take Offensive and Are Defeated.

THEIR LOSSES ARE HEAVY

People In Adrianople Flee From One Section to Another to Avoid Shells During Bombardment.

Sofia, Feb. 10.—An official statement issued here, says the Turks on Saturday took the offensive against the Bulgarians before Bulair, in the Galipoli peninsula.

After a fierce engagement lasting several hours the Bulgarians repulsed the Turks, pursuing them to the Bulair forts. Many wounded were left on the field.

Turkish prisoners say six divisions took part in the movement. At nightfall the Turks made another attempt down the coast, where twenty vessels had made their appearance. The landing parties from the ships were attacked by the Bulgarians, who inflicted heavy losses. The Turkish vessels thereupon sailed away.

All attempts of the Turks to assume the offensive at Tebatalla have been checked. They essayed to land troops at Podima, to the northeast of Istranda, on the Black sea, but were beaten off, leaving fifty dead.

The bombardment of Adrianople continues with uniform success. Deserters say the people within the invested city are fleeing from one section to another to avoid the Bulgarian shells.

American Captain Sees Fighting. Constantinople, Feb. 10.—The captain of an American collier which arrived here reports having witnessed interesting scenes along the coast of Marmora on the way to Constantinople from the Dardanelles.

An active engagement was proceeding in the neighborhood of Charkei. The Turkish warships were shelling the Bulgarian batteries, which were replying briskly.

Turkish troops had effected a landing and a body of cavalry was seen moving along the shore.

Other warships were shelling the Bulgarian positions at Silivri, to the southwest of Tebatalla. The capital was unable to see how the fighting was going, but the fact that a landing was accomplished gives promise of important developments soon.

It is reported from a Turkish source that the Bulgarians made a desperate attack on the Kavah fort at Adrianople, but after five and a half hours fighting were repulsed with heavy losses.

The government has decided to expel all Greek journalists, and is also causing the arrest of Greeks, Bulgarians and Macedonians, who probably will be sent out of the country.

TAR AND BURN MAN

Father of Victim Shoots Negro as Fames Begin to Mount.

Houston, Miss., Feb. 10.—Dibrell Tucker, a negro, in whose possession was found a diamond ring, said to have been the property of Mrs. J. C. Williams, murdered in her home here, was lynched by a mob in the court house square.

On Friday another negro who, it was believed, had murdered Mrs. Williams, was lynched.

The victim of the lynching was taken to the square and chained to an iron post. A kettle of tar was poured over him and faggots were piled about him. He was allowed to talk for a short time. Then a brother of Mrs. Williams touched a match to the dry wood.

Tucker had scarcely begun to feel the effects of the heat when the father of Mrs. Williams elbowed his way through the throng and shot the negro four times.

The negro, according to responsible citizens, admitted the crime and said that Andrew Williams, who was lynched on Friday, took the body of the woman from her home and threw it into the pit where it was found.

Miss Peck alleged the extraction of the wrong tooth will necessitate a painful and tedious regulation of the remaining molars. She is sixteen years old.

STATE SAVES MANY WITH ANTITOXIN

Diphtheria Deaths Are Reduced From 40 to 7.7 Per Cent.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 10.—The largest dose of diphtheria antitoxin ever given in Pennsylvania, so far as the records of the state department of health show, was administered during the past week to Fred Glover, a fifteen-year-old Altoona boy, who was suffering from a malignant type of diphtheria. In all 17,000 units were administered and this enormous dose resulted in saving the boy's life.

Just 44,965 persons, the majority of whom were children, have been treated with antitoxin furnished by the state during the past seven years. The ordinary curative dose administered is 5000 units, but in some instances this runs to 15,000 or 20,000.

The state department of health maintains 665 stations for the free distribution of antitoxin. All that a physician is required to do to obtain antitoxin is to sign a receipt giving his name and that of the patient. More than 120,000 packages have been supplied.

Diphtheria is primarily a disease of childhood and without the use of antitoxin the mortality is extremely high, averaging 40 per cent. Through the use of this curative agent in the 44,965 cases this mortality has been reduced to 7.7 per cent, which means a saving of more than 13,500 lives.

In addition to those who have been given curative doses of antitoxin 31,000 persons who have been exposed to diphtheria have been immunized, and as a result less than 2 per cent of these contracted the disease.

PLAN TO DISSOLVE MERGER APPROVED

Harriman Lines Ready to Obey Supreme Court Decree.

WILL RESTORE COMPETITION

Attorney General Declares Sale of Disputed Stock Will End the Monopoly.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Attorney General Wickensham announced that he had reached an agreement with the representatives of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads for the dissolution of the great Harriman merger as decreed by the supreme court.

The Union Pacific agrees to sell its 2,265,500 shares of Southern Pacific stock to its own stockholders and those of the Southern Pacific in what the government regards as sale proportion. The Union Pacific will require the Central Pacific for the Southern Pacific, giving it an extension from Ogden to the Pacific coast.

The plan announced is essentially the same as that made public a few days ago by the two roads when they reached an agreement satisfactory to themselves dissolving the merger. The attorney general in a public statement goes into greater detail, however, and declares that competition will be supplied monopoly under the agreed scheme of separation. He gives its unqualified approval.

The various contracts necessary for the carrying out of the agreement authorized by the boards of directors of the railroad companies have been completed and the effectiveness of the plan is conditioned on its approval by the United States district court, to which it will be presented at an early day.

In his statement the attorney general says: "The result of the whole transaction will be to create ideal competitive conditions between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific for the transcontinental business between eastern points and Portland and San Francisco and to relieve the states of California and Oregon of the monopoly of railroad control, which has been the occasion of such widespread public dissatisfaction in the past. The attorney general feels that the approval and carrying out of this plan will accomplish results of inestimable benefit to the public and results far more satisfactory than there was any reason to anticipate could have been secured."

The result of the distribution, if all the shareholders should avail of their subscription rights, will be that the present stockholders of the Southern Pacific will own 71 per cent of its capital stock, while the stockholders of the Union Pacific will own 29 per cent. The stock is offered for subscription at a price practically equal to par, payable in four installments, extending over a period of nine months.

"We," continued the emperor, "we have in the history of the past certain proof of God's guidance, and that he was still with us. And with this teaching of the past the whole German youth can forge in its fire the shield of faith, which must never be lacking in the armory of Germans and Prussians."

"With such weapons, looking neither to the right nor to the left, we will go our direct way, eyes uplifted and hearts uplifted with trust in God. Then we can all repeat the great chancellor's words:

"We Germans fear God and nothing else in the world."

A storm of applause followed the emperor's speech, which was interrupted and entirely unexpected.

KAISER POUNDS DESK AS HE SPEAKS

Warns People Not to Forget Faith of Their Fathers.

Berlin, Feb. 10.—Declaring that the Prussians were an "oppressed and dismembered folk" in 1806 as a consequence of God's judgment, because they had lost faith in him, the German emperor at a memorial service at Berlin university delivered a characteristic speech, warning the present generation of Germans not to forget the faith of their fathers.

The emperor emphasized his words by pounding on the desk. He asserted that the Germans of today are inclined to believe only in tangible things and to place difficulties in religion's way. They should study history, he said, and see how the Prussians regained their old faith, and fought the war of liberation, whose glorious result was not man's work, but God's work.

"So," continued the emperor, "we have in the history of the past certain proof of God's guidance, and that he was still with us. And with this teaching of the past the whole German youth can forge in its fire the shield of faith, which must never be lacking in the armory of Germans and Prussians."
